

Knights Templar: Charlatans or Crusaders? Heretics or Defenders of the Faith?

You've heard the rumors and reports but what do the authentic documents reflect?

The Chancellor R Livingston Library of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York has acquired facsimile copies of the Processus Contra Templarios manuscripts relating to the trials of the Knights Templar.

True copies of long lost documents which were mislaid by Vatican archivists and rediscovered after hundreds of years will be on display at the American Room of the Grand Lodge building located at 71 West 23rd Street, New York, New York at 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, February 11, 2009.

The Holy See has published exclusive and previously unavailable facsimiles of the trial transcripts, which recount original testimony dating back to the trial conducted in 1308 A.D. These documents will provide a suitable backdrop to a Lecture by Library Director Thomas M. Savini on the subject of the Knights Templar and their place in history. A question and answer session will follow the lecture.
